Wilson's Decision in Rail Case Is Firm

UNIONS CONSIDER PROPOSALS MADE TO SETTLE DISPUTE

PRESIDENT REFUSED TO GRANT GENERAL WAGE INCREASES, IS BELIEF.

"JUSTICE TO ALL" Brotherhood Chiefs Given Time to Study Suggested Terms.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) Washington, Feb. 13.—An "unalterable" decision in the railroad wage controversy was made today by President Wilson in conference with representatives of the brotherhoods. The president said the government's policy was "based on justice to all interests."

The president's decision was not announced at the White House. Officials said it was "a decision containing a proposal." From this it was assumed that the president had refused to grant general wage increases but had made a counter proposition to the men.

Secretary Tumulty declined to say whether the president had refused specifically the wage demands, saying that "everyone wants to settle the strike" and that the brotherhood chiefs should have an opportunity to consider the president's suggestion without outside interference.

The president's statement that the government's policy was "based on justice to all interests" is the line which the final word presented to the union leaders by Director General Hines at the last conference with them.

KAISER'S PRESENCE IN HOLLAND DANGEROUS ALLIES WARN DUTCH

Second Note Being Prepared, Advising Surrender of Ex-Emperor.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) London, Feb. 13.—A new allied note to Holland regarding the extradition of former Emperor William will be dispatched tomorrow, according to the Evening Standard today. The note, says the newspaper, makes a strong appeal to the Dutch government not to create greater difficulties in Europe by insisting on the right of asylum for the man characterized as the author of the world's present troubles.

From other sources it was learned this afternoon that the council was engaged in completing the note to Holland. The note was being drawn, it was said, in a form to emphasize the concerted view of the allies that the presence of the former Emperor in Holland was dangerous to the peace of Europe.

The note does not make any requests of Holland, but it is hoped that the Dutch government will be drawn into reopening the negotiations which ended with the refusal to give up the ex-emperor. It is stated that Holland has not received a suggestion to this effect unkindly and that she might be willing to intern the former emperor outside of Europe.

EX-MAYOR OF FLINT IS QUESTIONED IN NEWBERRY TRIAL

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) Grand Rapids, Feb. 13.—Cross examination of William H. McKelghan, former mayor of Flint, who was on the witness stand when court adjourned yesterday, was resumed at the opening of today's session of the Newberry election conspiracy trial. McKelghan, who in August, 1913, was under sentence to the penitentiary for assault and robbery, yesterday testified he was told by Richard Fletcher, defendant, that if he supported Newberry in the primary his case would be reversed by the state supreme court.

Attorney Littleton learned first that McKelghan lived in the second precinct of the First ward. He then read from the record McKelghan's version of Richard Fletcher's remarks behind the drug store prescription case.

"As a matter of fact the fifth and sixth precincts did not go for Newberry did they?" asked Mr. Littleton. McKelghan said that the ward vote for Newberry.

The attorney then read figures that Ford received 25 votes and Newberry 23, in the fifth and 25 to the senator's in the sixth precinct. McKelghan could not recall these results but again said the ward vote for Newberry.

McKelghan was arrested for keeping a gambling house in Flint, according to the attorney.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) Chicago, Feb. 13.—The fifty-first annual and final convention of the National American Suffrage association opened here today with two thousand delegates in attendance. The first met turned chiefly to a celebration of the expected early victory of women in the suffrage campaign. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the association, urged the delegates to rejoice because "there is no nation where they can do more than delay by a trifle the enfranchisement of women."

A congress of the League of Women Voters, which suffrage leaders expect will absorb the suffrage association, began yesterday, to continue through next Wednesday. Its initial meeting devoted to the references of opinion among republican and democratic women and political observers today were interestedly awaiting developments which suffrage leaders themselves said would indicate whether the women of wide, divergent political opinions could establish and maintain a non-partisan political organization. The purpose of the League of Women Voters, as announced, is to shape legislation of interest to women. A number of conferences today were formulating a legislative program, which will be submitted to the League of Women Voters in London, which if adopted, will become the league's platform.

Prohibition Causes Shortage of Sugar, Declares Chamberlain.

London, Feb. 13.—Debate on the address in reply to the king's speech from the throne was continued in the house of commons today when Sir Arthur J. Steel-Maitland, Unionist, moved an amendment to the address, asserting that the government's expenditure had been allowed to continue at so high a rate with consequent depreciation of the national credit and an increase in the cost of living.

Alusten Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, declared that the government could not be blamed for the high prices which were the result of world causes. Among other things, he said, the world's sugar production was short and because America was "dry" she was using much more sugar.

"To add to the miseries of the world, the United States goes dry," Sir Chamberlain declared.

A labor member interrupted with "for the benefit of the world," to which Lady Nancy Astor added, "and that they can be made successful in this country. Several hundred delegates representing labor and farm interests from all parts of the country were present.

Cooperative banking was again urged today as the method to keep the money of the farmer and worker where it can be used in their own interests instead of giving it to a professional banker the use of it.

E. A. Tyler of the Equity Cooperative Insurance company of St. Paul said: "You can vote for the party which carries out principles of justice and you will have a power that no class of politicians can defeat.

An outline for a definite system of cooperative banking was presented by Dr. Frederick C. Howe, executive director on the conference on democratic control of railroads. This system would have three purposes: To promote cooperation; to aid farmers and farm organizations; to promote projects of interest to labor.

The banks, he suggested, should have a capital of from $250,000 to $500,000. He said the vessels are organized as seen fit to enter the organization.

"In order to give these banks a cooperative character excess earnings should be devoted to: (a) The promotion of the shipping industry; (b) the distribution of deposits and borrowings; (c) propaganda purposes," he said.

"This movement must not stop with the organization of a few stores," Carl Lunn, Seattle, vice president of the National Cooperative Union, said.

"We must obtain possession of the entire system of production and distribution."

He urged for cooperation between farmer and worker was urged by C. H. Gustafson, president of the cooperative commission.

HEARST ASKS MONDAY AUCTION BE PROHIBITED; SENATE HEARS PAYNE'S EXPLANATION OF OFFER

Ashurst Introduces Resolution Preventing Disposal of Vessels As Proposed by Shipping Board; Says Fleet Is Necessary to Navy.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Application for an injunction against the shipping board and the emergency fleet corporation to prevent the sale of 30 former German liners at public auction today was filed in the District of Columbia supreme court today by William Randolph Hearst, New York, acting in his capacity as a taxpayer.

Chief Justice McCoey issued a rule requiring the defendants to show cause Monday morning why a temporary injunction should not be issued.

Those named in the application as defendants are: John B. Payne, Thomas A. Scott, John A. McDonald, and Raymond B. Stevens, the members of the board and the corporation known as the United States Shipping Board and Emergency Fleet corporation.

Mr. Hearst, through his attorneys, Former Governor Folk of Missouri; Former Senator Bailey of Texas; Former Acting Judge Advocate General Ansell, and William A. DeFord, told the court that irreparable injury would be done the United States and its people and tax pay if this sale were allowed to proceed Monday.

He charged that the conditions of the sale had not been properly advertised and that unless the court intervened vessels worth more than $100,000,000 worth be sold for a much smaller sum.

The government Mr. Hearst said the sale of the vessels would destroy the "army transport reserve immediately available in case of emergency." He also alleges that the shipping board was abusing its power in ordering the sale.

Chairman Payne of the shipping board announced that the application for an injunction would not prevent the offering of the ships for sale. He said tenders would be called Monday as planned but that final action on them would be deferred until the injunction proceedings had been disposed of finally.

Resolution Forbids Sale.

A concurrent resolution directing the shipping board not to sell the liners except through regular public bidding after three months advertisement, was introduced today by Senator Ashurst, democrat, Arizona. Senator Ashurst declared that it was a fact that the shipping board and the emergency fleet corporation intended to sell the vessels to the International Mercantile Marine for $25,000,000. He said the vessels had a prewar value of $154,000,000 and a present value of $300,000,000.

Senator Jones said Chairman Payne had appeared before the commerce committee this afternoon at his own request.

"I talked to the board on the telephone," he said, "and they advised me that they simply proposed to open bids and consider proposals Monday. I have been told that the board made the board believes it will cost from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 to put these ships in proper condition."

While the senate was in session, the commerce committee this afternoon at his own request.

The letter follows:

Answering an inquiry re sale of the ex-German passenger ships, the reasons were principally these:

1.—It is the opinion of the shipping board that we probably will not be able to operate passenger ships under prohibition successfully in competition with foreign ships which sell liquor. The reason why is: In December we fitted out the Mosca in sail to South America. Her health was poor and she was announced that in view of the policy of congress, government ships would not be permitted to sell liquor on board. The proceedings were immediately cancelled.

2.—We advertised the ex-German ships and for 20 were offered at $20,000,000. We had a careful calculation made as to the cost of re-conditioning these ships for passenger service and reached the figure of $75,000,000.

Good Time to Sell.

3.—Conditions in the shipping world are such that it is our conviction that this is the best time when we can sell ships to greater advantage than now.

4.—Two conditions are insisted upon by the board: (a) That the ships be sold to the United States flag; (b) that they are to be sailed in the routes indicated by the shipping board. After much talk and a long debate, Chairman Jones objected to immediate consideration of the Ashurst resolution on the grounds that a copy of the resolution had not been forwarded to the committee. The resolution then was referred to his committee.

DANCING GROWING POPULAR IN CITY

That dancing is one of the most popular diversions for people of Janesville seems to be sounded by the fact that there were four dancing parties held here last evening, all well attended.

The first was at a Valentine party, the host being attractively decorated with hearts and with red shades covering the lights. Dancing from 9 to 11 o'clock the Lakota orchestra playing was the chief attraction. At 11:30 o'clock a buffet lunch was served by Chef Green in the lodge rooms. Louis Lewis assisted by W. H. Wadsworth, W. R. Jackson, George Hodgson, Fred Lowe, M. Cook and George Kerr made up the entertainment committee.

Trinity church members enjoyed the first social event of the new year. A Valentine party, which was held in the parish hall. Decorations in keeping with the season were displayed. There was dancing from 8 to 11 o'clock, refreshments being served during the course of the evening.

One hundred and fifty couples, guests and their friends, attired in costumes of fancy and color, danced at the chamber of commerce here at 7:30 o'clock next Friday evening at which time arrangements will be made for a campaign for funds for the proposed scientific memorial building at the university. It is also hoped to complete organization of a Wisconsin alumni association of Rock county at that time.

This was decided at a meeting of graduates and ex-students at the Chamber of Commerce at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Attendees were: J. E. Ashworth, Milwaukee, and Loyd Baker, Evansville, both members of the executive committee, and eight members of the local committee. C. Oestreich was appointed chairman to preside at Friday's meeting.

Rock county although it ranks fourth in the standard number of state university students, has never had an alumni association. Excepting Columbia county it is the only one in the state without one. Organized, Janesville alone has more than 100 men and women who are graduates or former students of the university. At the meeting yesterday afternoon it was also suggested that an organization of this sort would also bring the Sumner employees who attended the dance last night to closer touch with those who reside in the county.

WHY SUCH HIGH CHIMNEYS?

By G. M. Hyde

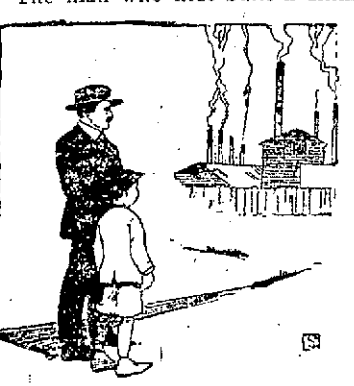

"Why do factories have such tall chimneys," asked the Graft of their turn-naes. And the height of the chimneys is so definitely related to the size of the plant that an engineer in tables told him that a 100-horse-power boiler must have a chimney at least 60 feet tall, while 1,000-horse-power needs one 110 feet tall, etc.

The man who first built a chimney was a simple fellow. He wanted merely to build a fire in his house without smoking out his family. He succeeded through the simple fact that hot air rises. The colder air in his house was heavy enough to be pushed up the chimney. But he found that his chimney must be taller than the highest part of his house's roof or the wind would work or draw because the column of warm air in the chimney must be taller than the column of cold air in the house, or there is not enough difference in weight.

"When men began to run steam engines and needed to build bigger, hotter fires indoors, they found that the bigger the fire, the more draft they needed—the faster the air must move up the chimney. This is because fire is nothing more than the combination of oxygen (in the air) with hot fuel, and the bigger fire you want, the more air and oxygen you must keep passing through it. To get the air to move up the chimney, you have unlimited air. Indoors, however, you have only what can crowd into the furnace and up the chimney.

"As the horsepower of a steam boiler depends on the amount of coal burned in it, engineers must force more air through the furnace. To get this extra 'push,' they build the chimney larger and taller, because the taller and thicker the column of hot air, the faster it will be pushed on by heavier cold air. To get more on the chimney gives just so much more push to the air. The chimney, you can tell just about how big its boilers are by the size and height of its chimney."

BIG-GAINS MADE IN NEAR EAST DRIVE

The first individual donation for the support of an Armenian orphan to John Gross, county secretary for the Near East relief committee, yesterday afternoon. This morning another check for the amount of $50 was received. Mr. Gross said today that more of such individual support would make it possible for this county to reach its quota, the support of 100 orphans, in the allotted time of the drive, Feb. 22.

Two lodges meeting last evening adopted orphans. The Iron, Green and Racine lodges, adopted two orphans each. The Iron, Green and Racine lodges, adopted two orphans each. The Iron, Green and Racine lodges, adopted two orphans each.

Grade school children are working to raise money, which Mr. Gross said would probably result in each school being able to adopt at least one orphan.

Five counties in the state, Iron, Price, Sheboygan, Green and Racine, have already subscribed their share, but Rock county has unfortunately been hindered somewhat by the fact that there has been much illness.

WIFE'S WAR THIRST

London, Eng.—A husband who complained to a magistrate of his wife's drinking, said that before the war two stouts were her limit, but now she wanted 22 to satisfy her, and even then she could finish off with six double whiskies. The war had altered her character in every way, he said.

HOME MADE HANDKERCHIEFS

By Belle Case Harrington

There is a girl in a town in Pennsylvania who is earning money for a trip next summer, by selling hand-made handkerchiefs. She began early last fall with a few orders from friends, and now she has orders for all she can do until spring.

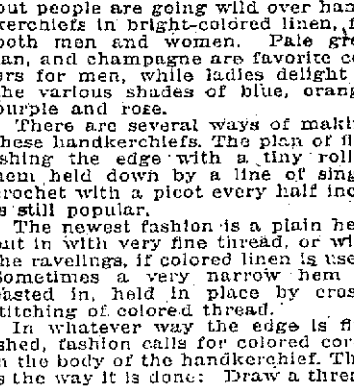

One-third of a yard of linen makes the handkerchief. This, with a skein of floss, makes the cost of material about 25 cents.

White is now the standard color, but people are going wild for handkerchiefs in bright-colored linen, for both men and women. Pale grey, tan, and champagne are favorite colors for men, while ladies delight in the various shades of blue, orange, purple and rose.

There are several ways of making the handkerchief. The plan of finishing the edge with a tiny rolled hem held down by a line of single crochet with a picot every half inch, is still popular.

The newest fashion is a plain hem put in with very fine thread, or with the raveling, if colored linen is used. Sometimes a very narrow hem is finished in held in place by cross-stitching of colored thread.

In whatever way the edge is finished, fashion calls for colored cords in the body of the handkerchief. This is the way it is done: Draw a thread evenly all around the handkerchief. Then skip one thread and draw another. This leaves a row of thread, with an open space on either side. Take a double length of colored floss and tie the end of this middle thread on the lower edge of the handkerchief. Then begin at the other side of the handkerchief, and pull this middle thread carefully through. The double colored thread will follow easily. Your linen is as lovely as woven as it should be. All sorts of designs may be carried out, though a few simple lines are the best for the mere handkerchiefs.

Be sure to keep the work immaculately clean. Always have it folded in a clean cloth, and keep it sweetened sachet among your linens.

DEAD BABY BY POST

London, Eng.—A sorter named Eastwood made a startling discovery at the Post Office last evening. A brown paper parcel addressed to Mrs. English, care of the Post Office, Lantau, Upper Burma, came into his hands. He noticed a disagreeable smell. One of the officials opened the parcel and found it contained the body of a girl baby not more than a week old. The body was wrapped in two sheets of brown paper and a woman's nightdress.

DINNER WITH WINE, 25

Paris.—The French Government has opened in Paris 12 cheap restaurants. Dinner is served plainly and comfortably, with heaped-up portions and a large roll of bread, cost only about 25 cents at the present rate of exchange.

This leaves a small profit, and as soon as the establishments' charges have been met it is proposed to add wine and coffee for the same price. The meat and vegetables are bought fresh every day at the central markets, and highly qualified chefs cook.

WEATHER HELPS TO MAKE FRIDAY THE 13TH DANGEROUS

Even the elements were scheming today plotting to cause the downfall on icy sidewalks of many superstitious folks who felt that they were doomed because of Friday the thirteenth. But Macomber-like after waiting all day for something to turn up, they decided that this season anyhow the day is not one of evil portent.

But the day isn't over and coupled with the fact that the Leap year drive is on and the Samson dance is to be in progress this evening at the armory they decide to sally forth eager for real adventure and relaying somewhat on the committee's word that he who fails to attend the dance will sure rue the day as unlucky.

The Blue Mount Country Club orchestra, Milwaukee, will play the dance and special features intended to divert the mind from the fact that it is the jinx birthday will be introduced.

APOLLO CLUB TO GIVE EXTRA NAVY CONCERT

The Apollo club has concluded, in view of the liberal patronage enjoyed this season, to give an extra recital without charge to its members. The recital will be given by the Apollo quartet in the Methodist church, February 17. This quartet is composed of four young men, Herman Felber, first violin, Carl Ross, second violin, Robert Dolecki, viola, and Walter Brauer, cello. These young men were in the navy and prior to their enlistment were members of the Apollo club. During the historic trips of President Wilson across the ocean to France, these young men were chosen out of thousands of applicants as the official musicians to accompany the president. Immediately upon returning to civilian life, they organized and embarked their little quartet into a permanent organization upon a coast-to-coast tour, which has been a succession of musical triumphs. Owing to the fact that the recital will be given by those who enlisted in defense of their country, it was thought by the directors to be a fitting thing to issue a ticket, without charge, to any ex-service men living in Janesville who will present proper credentials.

IS THESSA MARRIED?
Maybe she has and, again, maybe she hasn't, but at any rate from Pittsburgh comes a rumor that Thessa Barr, queen of the screen vamp, has committed matrimony. From Bodkin, once manager for Frank Moran, pugilist, and now manager of "The Sweetheart Shop," is said to be the vamped groom. The wedding, it is said, took place in a Catholic church in that city a week ago, but the facts have just been announced. Miss Barr owns a half interest in the production which Bodkin manages.

SILVER AND GOLD IN EXEMPLARY WASTE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Northampton, Mass., Feb. 13.—Silver and gold were thrown away here yesterday to illustrate a talk on the waste represented by the alleged carelessness among factory workers. The treasurer of a hosiery company told the operatives that in a week 11,760 needles, worth 1 1/2 cents each, had been lost.
The effort was the same, he said, as if $147 were thrown from the shop window, whereupon the treasurer took from his desk a pile of 147 silver dollars and tossed them out of the window.
Silk scattered under foot was as much destroyed as if thrown away, he added, estimating the amount of loss from this cause last week at $50, he tossed gold coins among the workers.
Some listened to the treasurer's later remarks, others scrambled for the gold, while many went out of doors to search for the silver in the snow.

AU MAMAUX SAYS HE'S "HOLDOUT NUMBER 1"

New York.—Al Mammaux has put himself on record as "Holdout No. 1" for the season of 1920. It will be remembered that the pitching "Adonis" of the Brooklyn Nationals came to the Superbas from Pittsburgh after a lengthy squabble with one Barney Dreyfus. He was full of promise at the time of the transfer and worked hard until he entered the employ of a shipyard concern during the "work or fight" regime. He returned last season and pitched some sterling ball for Your Uncle Robbie.

Success, prosperity or whatever it may be called, appears to rest heavily on the artist's shoulders. Asked if he had signed his 1920 contract, Al is quoted as saying to a Pittsburgh friend:

"No. I haven't and I won't unless they pay me my price. I will come into the first of the year and I'll be in a position to tell Ebbeys where he comes out."

GENTLEMAN DEFINED BY BISHOP WELDON

London, Eng.—Bishop Weldon, dean of Durham, attributed the following qualities to a Christian gentleman, whose character and spirit were vitally needed today, particularly in industrial disputes: "Such a man could not lie; his life would be open; his aspect would be clear. He would not if he could, and could not if he would, play a double game. He would not take an unfair advantage of anybody. His word was his bond. His conscience was his religion. He was the soul of loyalty. He would not, but what he could give. He tried to make the world a little better and a little happier. He was always looking out for a chance to say a kind word or do a kind act, to relieve sorrow and inspire hope, or lift a lame dog, or so freely, and help those who were sad at heart to smile again."

PARROT AS WITNESS
London, Eng.—A green parrot was a witness in a case at the Thames Police Court, when a sailor was charged with stealing the bird from a man aboard the same ship.

Prisoner said he had been under the impression that the bird was his, but having ascertained that it talked, he had changed his mind, as his bird was mute.

Taken into court, Mr. Rooth, the magistrate, said that if it used bad language it would have to be taken out, but the prosecutor addressing it as "Laura," it answered with the same word.

Prisoner again expressed himself convinced that he had been under a misapprehension, and was discharged. The magistrate observed that the parrot left the court with a stain on his character.

FUNERALS COME HIGH.
London.—Judge Ivor Brown made strong comments on the extravagance to which people went in funerals in a case at the New Town county court. He was told that the funeral expenses of a laborer were $100 and that a coffin only, in another case, had cost $120 and remarked: "It is positively wicked, and the profiteering act should apply."

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS FROM HOME.
Plymouth, Eng.—William Hines, of Springfield, Colorado, saw his native land the other day for the first time in 65 years. He is visiting his sisters and a brother at Watford and will return to America in June. In 1854, at the age of 12, he sailed from London and landed at New Orleans. He fought for the North in the Civil War.

A LIFE FOR SALE.

No Matter How Bad the Complexion
Stuart's Calcium Wafers Provide the Wonderful Calcium Sulfide That Gives the Skin What it Requires to Prevent Pimples, Blackheads and Such Skin Disfigurements.

The pink freshness of a natural complexion is greatly admired these days because of the too general use of rouge, powders, creams and other make-ups. It comes without saying that a natural, beautiful complexion has health beneath it and with health is vivacity and leadership in social and other activities. No matter how bright and active one may be, a face covered with pimples is a handicap. Never before was the question of healthful appearance so much in evidence. Get rid of pimples, blackheads, roughness, redness and itching rash by using Stuart's Calcium Wafers. They contain calcium sulphide, considered by scientists absolutely essential to clear, healthy skin.

If you are discouraged you can now cheer up. No matter how bad your skin may be from such conditions Stuart's Calcium Wafers ought to work wonders with it. And then goodbye to blackheads, pimples, boils, rash, and a muddy, sallow complexion.

So don't be blue, don't despair, get a 50-cent box of Stuart's Calcium Wafers today at any drug store in the United States and soon you may have as beautiful a complexion as you ever wished for.

No High Scores at Manitowoc Yesterday

Manitowoc, Feb. 13.—Bowlers in the annual state bowling tournament failed to make high scores last night and only one change was recorded, when A. Wingham, of Milwaukee, rolled into fourth place in the singles with a score of 636. "Jimmy" Smith, the Milwaukee star, failed to make an appreciable showing in the team event, scoring only 553 for the three games.

SOBER FOR FIVE YEARS.
London, Eng.—Higham Patters, Northamptonshire, where there has been no conviction for drunkenness for five years, now advances another claim of distinction. It says that it is probably unique for the fact that its rates are 4 cents in the pound and stilling lower than they were before the war.

WHAT ARE SNAGS?
London, Eng.—A woman puzzled the Wilesden magistrate recently by asking for a summons against a "snag" for "throwing snags." After inquiries had been made, it was found that they were insulting words.

CHINESE, ATMOSPHERE SUR-ROUNDS "CHIN CHIN."
Melodious, artistic and diverting is "Chin Chin," scheduled for Myers Theatre tonight.

In their songs "The Chinese Honey-moon," "Go Gung Sing Gung-Jue" and "Temple Bells," the two clever comedians, Wills and Binder, make a decided hit and are always recalled again and again. In this charming play with a Chinese atmosphere there are also a score of other songs that are the fascinating, whistling kind, and several unique dances that lightfully.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON
Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl, 16 years old and deeply in love with a boy two years my senior. We wish very much to marry, but our parents will not give their consent. Would it be all right for us to go away and get married? Do you think we would be happy?

DOTTIE AND JERRY.
Your marriage would not be legal if you run away and get married. Young people of your age cannot marry without the consent of their parents. If you did such a thing, Dottie's reputation would be ruined. It is not worth while to be disobedient. Wait until both of you are old enough to do such a thing. You probably have even thought of the high price of living. There is no possible chance that such a union would turn out right.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What would you do if a young man had asked you to marry him and you loved him truly, then he turns you down and brings another girl where you are and introduces her to you; then after two or three days he wants to come back? Why does he do this?

BABY C.
It is impossible for me to explain such a thing. Give the young man a chance to explain for himself. There is a chance that he couldn't avoid the girl, but if he can't put aside all jealousy and judge the matter fairly.

"Unpopular." Many girls of 16 are not popular with boys. Enjoy your girl friends and try to forget boys until one of them notices you and asks to come to see you. Popularity with boys comes naturally and cannot be forced.

"Jazzy Baby." Your parents are quite right in not allowing you to attend dances.

ST. VITUS DANCE AND CREDULITY

Chorea, or St. Vitus' dance, as it is more commonly known, is a disease quite common in childhood. It is apparently caused by bacterial infection of the nervous system, infection gaining entrance in most cases through the throat—the disease often follows or complicates quinsy, scarlet fever, acute tonsillitis, rheumatism or rheumatic fever) and other infections originating in the throat. St. Vitus' dance is the name of a tendency towards lodgment of some of the causative germs on the lining of the heart, especially the portion of the lining covering some of the heart valves, and a consequent heart lining inflammation (endocarditis) or valvular distortion and subsequent leakage. This accident or complication may occur painlessly and indeed without the knowledge of patient or guardian, though the attending physician if there be an attending physician.

Right here is where the cruelty of ignorance is manifest. In fact, often there is no attending physician, but instead a series of experiments, a constantly changing series of "trial treatments" by Tom, Dick and Harry, at the earnest behest of every busy-body, every gossip who happens along. Of course there is no method of treatment, no remedy known which may be honestly called a cure for St. Vitus' dance, and just of all the charms and fol-de-rol too often exploited.

Any parent or guardian who fails to provide medical attendance throughout the duration of an attack of St. Vitus' dance, be it two weeks or six months or three years is not true to his trust. It is a nice problem, a delicate technical question in each individual case whether the child should be at rest in bed, at rest in chair, at play, or receiving some special treatment which the individual condition may require. Not only to conserve the child's strength, but to ward against the danger of serious involvement of the heart and permanent handicap thereby, it is demanded that medical attendance shall be provided as regularly as may be advisable throughout such an illness.

Yet, ignorant of all this, reckless of the child's welfare, gullible and credulous as any poor variety of the middle ages, the parent or guardian so often listens to the blandishments of plausible fakery and quackery, who pitiable little patient to one experiment after another, forever searching

She Married an Average Man

By ZOE BECKLEY.

I stared miserably at the fragments of the letter I could not send. It was too revealing, far too honest. It was never written for a woman to pour her soul into a letter, unless she was a poet. It was like putting on all one's jewelry at once. It is both a vulgarity, and a temptation to others. The wise woman keeps something of herself in reserve.

At last I took up my pen and began a self-contained epistle that would, I told myself, have the effect of "reuniting us, yet would not leave me a sense of being so subject in my self-blame."

"My dear Jim," I commenced, repressing the impulse of "writing with my heart," for my husband is not to be appealed to with unrestraint.

"My dear Jim," I commenced, repressing the impulse to think and realize. We have had many problems in our married life. Every couple must have, since marriage, first of all, means a readjustment of one's whole point of view. From the moment of marriage, one must cease to be an individual; one must view things from a social standpoint. That is, neither can act for self alone. Each must do what will bring the best results to BOTH.

Well, since I have made our mistakes. The last one, however, is entirely mine. I see it clearly now. And I long to repair it, Jim. I have been selfish. I want to be better.

When I reached this point, I seemed unable to go further. I sat chewing pen and reciting my dried brain for further terms of expression. This letter was as much an extreme of cold analysis as the other was of warmth and impulse. Both were all wrong.

I worked myself into a mental deadlock. My brain seemed to fail me. A stupid, staring, staring stare over me. I laid my head upon my outstretched arms, discouraged, lonely, tired and cold. I felt as if I had turned to ice.

THE MAN IN GRAY

At last Gus Runsmore saw him, stopping smartly on the street in his gray uniform, his bag slung over his left shoulder.

The excited youth rushed out to meet him.

"Deed!" cried Gus. "Stop! You have a letter for Gus Runsmore from the Washburn, Wyoming. Evening Snootie, informing me of my success in their $30,000 wishbone contest."

"I have not," replied the other, and made as though to pass on.

But Gus Runsmore laid a pleading hand on his arm.

Having you a letter from my sister-in-law in St. Petersburg, Florida? She sent me a note to tell me that a letter was following, and it's terribly important.

"I have not," The same words as before, only much more.

"But surely you have one from Gus Runsmore," he persisted. "There's somebody there that writes to me before and after each meal and has gone to bed. I just know you have one there for me! Hand it."

"I have not," The same words as before, only much more.

SPRING COATS MAKE THEIR INITIAL BOW

By ELOISE.

For several weeks shop windows have been brilliant with the display of straw hats, new spring suits, delightful blouses for the coming season, new footwear, and even summer frocks. The fashion observer, however, is now in the class with the person who boasts of having seen the first robin for the season.

And he swaggers his bag as he crawls into the cellar window of the house next door.

Not being a friendly neighbor, Gus said nothing.

Rome.—A correspondent returning from Rome says the most difficult element in the town to govern is the female. At all the meetings the women arrive first and occupy the best seats. They cheer, or hiss, vociferously and frequently interrupt speakers.

MAN ANNOYED AT WOOLER
London, Eng.—A young man complained to Magistrate Symonds that his former sweetheart annoyed him.

"She is only trying to woo you," said the magistrate. "The man said he did not want her attentions. But she will have one there for me! Hand it."

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Hamburg.—For noodles: Into one egg stir pinch of salt and flour to make a very stiff dough. Roll out thin as possible; allow to dry a short time. Roll up and cut fine. Shape one pound hamburger steak into large cake about one inch thick.

Saute in hot fat until well browned on both sides. Add one cup well seasoned tomatoes and one cup of water. Cover and simmer for one hour. Add sufficient boiling water to cover and then add noodles. Continue cooking for about 20 minutes. Serve meat on large platter surrounded by noodles.

Mock Cherry Pie.—Fillings: Cook one cup cranberries with one-half cup water until soft. Mix two tablespoons cornstarch with a little cold water and add to cranberries. Then add one cup seeded raisins, one cup sugar and one-half cup boiling water.

Cook mixture until thick. Line pie tin with a rich paste, fill with the mixture, cover with an upper crust, brush over with milk and bake in a moderate oven.

Graham Bread.—Sift three cups of Graham flour, add one small teaspoon of salt to one cup of white flour; stir one teaspoon of soda in one pint of sour milk, add to Graham flour, mix; mix and beat until smooth.

Smooth over the loaves with a spoon dipped in cold water. Grease the baking pans and bake slowly one hour. This makes two loaves.

Salad Dressing.—Yolks of three eggs well beaten, one tablespoon of mustard, two teaspoons of salt, one teaspoon of flour, one-quarter teaspoon cayenne pepper, two teaspoons of sugar, two teaspoons of melted butter, one cup of cream or milk, one-half cup of hot vinegar, whites of three eggs beaten stiff.

Mix in the order given and cook in a double boiler.

Timelander.—The Brown Land & Lumber company, one of the largest lumber concerns in the country, has purchased a new saw mill at Saxon. The company is logging extensively this winter, more than a dozen miles in various sections of the state and country being required to cut the logs.

Corn Chowder.—One pint of canned corn, one-half can of sliced raw potatoes, three-quarter inch cube of salt pork, one small onion, one tablespoon flour, one pint milk, one teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, one hard-boiled egg. Cook potatoes in boiling salted water. Chop the fat and render out in the kettle. Add onion, cut up, and cook five minutes. Dredge with the flour. Add one cup water, corn, milk, salt and seasonings. Simmer 10 minutes. Cut eggs in rings and add when ready to serve. Nutritious and inexpensive.

The scrapple is a nice change from the usual bacon and sausage and costs less. The salad is excellent to serve when one has planned a sweet dessert and the chowder is a splendid luncheon dish, particularly when meat has been served at both breakfast and dinner. Hickory nut meats may be used in place of the pecans and cost much less.

TO COOK POULTRY
Turkish Chicken.—Two cups of diced, cooked chicken, two cups of cooked rice, two cups of chicken stock or hot water, one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon of onion juice, two cups of strained tomato juice, two tablespoons of butter.

Cook the rice in the chicken stock or hot water, which salted onion juice have been added. Cover and cook until the rice absorbs all the liquid, then add the strained tomato juice and cook until this is absorbed by the rice.

Melt a little butter in a saucepan and in this brown the cooked chicken, then pour the chicken into the rice, add butter, cover and let simmer slowly for 20 minutes.

Casserole of Chicken.—Place in a deep casserole portions of 12 disjointed chicken. Sprinkle with salt, and place a layer of thinly sliced onions, sliced carrots, chopped celery and parsley between the layers of chicken.

Fill the casserole half full of hot water, slit flour over top and cover.

SMALL-POX DANGER POINT IS PASSED

Children who have remained away from school the past 25 days because they have not been vaccinated may now return to school without danger, Dr. Fred Welch, city health officer, announced today. The quarantine for the school was to extend that length of time.

Dr. Welch said that small pox had decreased in this city to the extent that only three cases were reported to him last week and those were not children. Adults seem to be subject to the disease recently, probably because many of them have not been vaccinated, he declared.

Around the State

Wausau.—A new hospital is being promoted by a number of business and professional men of Wausau. A central site will be chosen and a hospital built with one hundred rooms and a complete up-to-date equipment. Cost will be a secondary consideration to completeness.

Neenah.—Fred Page, aged 70 years, dropped dead of heart failure at the 800 line depot here while on his way from Clintonville to Wausau to take out naturalization papers.

Neenah.—A concrete highway between Oshkosh and Neenah is practically sure to be constructed this summer, according to a statement made by County Highway Commissioner James Binning. Other highway improvement work in Winnebago county is being curtailed as a matter of economy.

La Crosse.—Word was received here of the death of Mrs. E. W. Mitchell in a Chicago hospital. Mrs. Mitchell was the daughter of Hans Danneberg, pioneer north side merchant and former postmaster of North La Crosse.

Neenah.—Recruiting for Company 1 is progressing satisfactorily here, according to military officials. It is possible that the entire roster will be secured before the end of this week which is being observed as recruiting week.

Sheboygan.—Mrs. Mattie Hoppert, wife of County Agricultural Agent Martin Hoppert, is dead of influenza. She leaves her husband and two small children.

Sheboygan.—Miss Helen Herman won first place in the high school declamatory contest. Miss Ione Gibson won second place and Miss Charlotte Crocker, third.

La Crosse.—Charles N. Dunham, aged 45, former La Crosse grocery merchant, died in Baltimore where he went two years ago to engage in the coal business.

"GIVE GIRL CHANCE TO CHOOSE LIFE WORK WHILE IN SCHOOL," ADVISES HELEN HOERLE

Helen Christene Hoerle.

Miss Helen Christene Hoerle, who is the successful business manager of a successful musical comedy and who was the only woman on Broadway last season to hold such a position, has proclaimed herself the champion of the little grammar school graduate who thinks she knows exactly what she wants to be. Miss Hoerle maintains that frequently the young girl knows exactly what she wants to do in life and that she should not have her ambitions crushed by older folks. It is her belief that every girl in her teens has a right at least to think about the sort of "job" she wants to hold. So earnest is she in her desire to help such girls that she has just written a book, which aims "to warn and enlighten." It is called "The Girl and the Job" and has just come from the publishers, being one of the newest books on vocational guidance for girls. The book covers every field of work for the girl and tells exactly the conditions she will have to meet. There is no field omitted from manicurists to stock brokers. Miss Hoerle hopes that some day her book will be a text book or supplementary reader for girls in school.
